9. AVH History: Subject has been associated with the AVH since 1945. From May 1952 to summer of 1953 Subject was head of the Dzerzhinskiy Combinat. In the summer of 1953, he was arrested in connection with the General Gabor PETER case. He was released after 4-5 months and was rehabilitated but refused to return to the AVH.
10. Operational Aliases: Unknown
11. Other Aliases and Circumstances Used: Unknown
12. Close Friends within AVH: Unknown. Source first heard about Subject in May 1952 when he was appointed to head the Dzerzhinskiy School system. In late 1953 or early 1954 Source again heard of him from Lt. Istvan SZENES who had been Subject's interrogator when the latter was under arrest.
13. Comments: Subject has a glass eye on the left side and his whole face is twisted. Source is correct in stating that Subject has been with the AVH since 1945. Up to circa 1950 he worked on the ideological line; at one time in 1948 he was in charge of the youth line, the Social Democrats, and the Party deviationists. He gave a few lectures in ideology at the Dzerzhinskiy School circa 1949. About late 1950 Subject became chief of the overall Information Bureau of the AVH and later received the Dzerzhinskiy School assignment. He was arrested circa February 1953 in connection with the General PETER case. Although he was among the best known of the upper echelon of the AVH, he was not "the best case officer", as Source states. He was a very aggressive person and not well liked.
